WHAT’S MY NEXT MOVE?
A guide to exploring careers using online documents from the U.S. Department of Labor

What are my career interests?

Which careers do I want to explore?

What are my career goals?

Who’s doing what I want to do?

What are my plans to achieve my career goals?

How do I start my career?

How do I put my plan into action?

What’s My Next Move? is a career planning document designed to assist high school students in managing their education and career plans. This document guides students along the career planning process from self-assessment, career/occupation exploration, to job searching and interviewing. The major benefit of this document is that it will allow students to engage career counselors, teachers, parents and others as they identify and gather information from multiple sources into one comprehensive plan.

A proud partner of the American Jobcenter network
STEP 1: What are your career interests?

Take the O*NET Interest Profiler online:  http://www.mynextmove.org/explore/ip

Write down your interest scores:

Realistic  ____
Investigative ____ Artistic  ____ Social  ____
Enterprising ____
Conventional ____

Action Item(s): Before moving on to Step 2, do the following:

✓ Complete?
  - Go to page 10 and print the Career Planning Document
  - Write down your interest scores above AND in the Career Planning Document
  - Read about Job Zones below.
STEP 2: Which careers do I want to explore?

Some careers take longer to prepare for than others. On MyNextMove website, each O*NET career is in one of five Job Zones.

Careers in Job Zones 1 and 2 typically require a high school education. You may also want to consider careers in Job Zone 3 and above that require training after high school.

Have you thought about how much education or training you want to take to prepare for your career? Consider all of the options:
- Registered apprenticeship
- Community college
- Four-year college
- Technical training, Job Corps.

You can print out a list that explains the five Job Zones here: http://www.mynextmove.org/explore/jobzones.

Remember: The more education and training you have (for example: industry certifications, associate’s degree) the more money you are likely to earn over your lifetime.

Here’s an example based on Interest Profiler results in Step 1 for Job Zone 3 (medium preparation [e.g. associate’s degree])

Of the occupations matching your interests, which ones do you want to learn more about? Here are some examples:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Job Zone</th>
<th>Occupation</th>
<th>Occupation</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>3</td>
<td>Occupational Therapy Assistants</td>
<td>Critical Care Nurses</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4</td>
<td>Elementary School Teacher</td>
<td>Rehabilitation Counselor</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Action Item(s): Before moving on to Step 3, do the following:

✓ Complete?
- Write down the occupations that match your interests in the Career Planning Document under step 2.
- For each of the career choices that you want to explore further, print out the one-page occupation profile from MyNextMove and attach it to your Career Planning Document.
STEP 3: What are my career goals?

To learn more about a specific career, view the occupational report in MyNextMove and look it up in the Occupational Outlook Handbook: www.bls.gov/ooh to read about the nature of the work and additional information on training, advancement, earnings, and prospects for the future.

You will see information that looks like this:

Excerpt from occupational report (MyNextMove) for Occupational Therapy Assistants:

<table>

<tr>
<th>Occupation</th>
<th>Average Pay</th>
<th>Education/Training Required</th>
<th>General Occupational Outlook</th>
<th>Local Projected Openings</th>

<td>Assoc. Degree</td>
<td>Bright Outlook</td>
<td>+30% by 2018</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Action Item(s): Before moving on to Step 4, do the following:

- Write down occupation research in the Career Planning Document (see example above)
- In the Outlook Section of the MyNextMove occupation profile, click on “Find Jobs” to see if there are any jobs posted right now.
- For outlook info in your state, go to the bottom of the page of the MyNextMove occupational profile – click on the link for O*Net Online.
- On the O*Net online screen – click on the link at the top labeled “Wages and Employment”, or just scroll down to the bottom of the page to the “Wages and Employment” section.
- Under the heading “State and National” – you can select your state and then click “Go” to find if that occupation is growing and how many job openings are estimated each year. Use this information to fill in the last column “Projected Openings” (see example above).
STEP 4: Who’s doing what I want to do?

Find out what it is really like to work in the occupation or field you like. Think about asking friends, parents, friends of parents, teachers, school counselors, church leaders, librarians and others in your community.

Contact professional associations related to your field of interest – they are a great place to start networking and asking important questions related to your career of interest. Professional associations and societies often operate websites featuring job openings, resume banks or other employment-related services (these can include job agents, banner advertising and discussion forums for networking).

It might include work samples, letters of recommendation, a resume, school transcripts, or awards and honors: www.careeronestop.org/Portfolios
STEP 7: How do I put my plan into action?

Do you want or need personal assistance in planning and achieving your career goals? Use America’s Service Locator to find an American Job Center Network member closest to you: www.servicelocator.org.

Share the information you’ve gathered using What's My Next Move? and the Career Planning Document (page 10) with the counselors you meet with at the American Job Center and ask for their advice and guidance in achieving the goals that you’ve identified.

You may also consider sharing your Career Planning Document with family members, school counselors, librarians, community organizations where you may volunteer, people you meet and network with (for example: your informational interviewee – see Step 4).

The Career Planning Document is a “living” document. As you gain information, skills and experience, continue to add and change information in this document. Over time, your career goals and plans will change. You also may want to pursue more education and training to reach your career goals. The Career Planning Document is great for organizing and capturing new goals and new information.

Good luck on your path to career success!
