What is TAACCCT?
The Trade Adjustment Assistance Community College and Career Training (TAACCCT) grant program provides community colleges and other eligible institutions of higher education with funds to expand and improve their ability to deliver job-driven training programs that can be completed in two years or less and prepare participants for employment in high-wage, high-skill occupations. TAACCCT programs are developed in partnership with local employers and result in industry-recognized degrees or credentials.

Who should use the TAACCCT Grantee Program Finder?
• Jobseekers, the workforce counselors who assist them, and other workforce system partners can locate local programs of study that offer supportive job training opportunities and are tailored to the needs of local employers.
• Community college and other training program planners can find contact information to access publicly available curriculum and other educational materials to assist in program planning and development.

What information is included in the TAACCCT Grantee Program Finder?
