what’s new

Announcing the Career Videos for America’s Job Seekers Challenge
During the Career Videos Challenge, anyone can create and submit videos that provide a glimpse into the day-to-day work in a number of careers. The U.S. Department of Labor’s Employment and Training Administration will select finalists, and the public can then vote on their favorites. The top video in each category will win $1,000. After the challenge, videos will be posted on sites such as CareerOneStop.org and Doleta.gov. Visit www.dolvideochallenge.ideascale.com to view a sample video and read the contest rules.

America’s Service Locator has a public library search
You can search for more than 17,000 libraries across the U.S. by state or ZIP code. Visit www.servicelocator.org/Libraries.asp and enter your state or ZIP code to find libraries near you, along with addresses, phone numbers, website links, maps, and driving directions.

O*NET OnLine now includes related-industry employment information
Each occupation report from O*NET OnLine now includes related industry employment information. In addition, there is a new “Browse by Industry” feature that lets you learn which occupations can be found within 20 broad industries. Visit online.onetcenter.org/find/industry to try out this new feature.

in this issue

what’s new..................................................1
spotlight....................................................2
solutions ...................................................3
other resources.................................3
events.........................................................3
contact us........................................3
coming soon........................................3

take notice

Workforce3One.org lets you search for case studies and other solutions to common workforce challenges. Read more on page 3.

E-mail your feedback and comments to info@CareerOneStop.org.

spotlight

New CareerOneStop Section: Students and Career Advisors

Looking for resources to help students with career exploration, job search, and education topics? CareerOneStop’s new Students and Career Advisors section (www.CareerOneStop.org/StudentsandCareerAdvisors) can help.
Read more on page 2.
connections

spotlight

New Career OneStop Section: Students and Career Advisors

CareerOneStop has expanded resources to help students and those who advise them identify interests, explore careers, job search, and find education options.

Visit www.CareerOneStop.org/StudentsandCareerAdvisors to explore the four areas below:

Identify Your Interests helps students and advisors:
- Learn how identifying skills, interests, and values can help guide career exploration.
- Link to assessments and other tools to explore the world of work.
- View skill and ability videos.

Explore Careers helps students:
- Understand the difference between an industry and an occupation.
- Explore careers by industry groups, including industries that are in demand, high-paying, have the largest employment, and more.
- Explore careers by occupations, including exploring the occupations expected to grow fastest, pay the most, have the most job openings, and more.

Get Work Experience helps students:
- Learn about work options like internships and apprenticeships.
- Begin a job search and learn about resumes, job applications, and more.
- Find online job boards especially for students.
- View videos about work options.

Find Education Options helps students:
- Locate college or short-term training programs in their local area.
- Learn about certifications and other workplace credentials.
- Find resources to help pay for training and education programs.
Solutions

Scholarship Search
CareerOneStop’s Scholarship Search has new features. You can now search for scholarships in all countries outside the United States or Canada by selecting “Other Countries.” There’s also a new “All Canada” option for Canadian residents.

The Scholarship Search (www.CareerOneStop.org/ScholarshipSearch) is an interactive, online tool for locating scholarships and other financial assistance for education. It includes more than 5,000 scholarships, fellowships, loans, and other opportunities.

Users can search for scholarships by type of award, study level, affiliation, or state or country of residence. There’s also a keyword search to help find particular scholarships.

Other Resources

Workforce Solutions from Workforce3One
Since 2008, the Employment and Training Administration (ETA) has disseminated materials for over 500 solutions to the challenges that workforce development professionals face every day. These solutions include curriculum, competency models, research findings, career awareness and outreach materials, teacher training modules, case studies, career lattices, websites, and more!

Search for materials at wfsolutions.workforce3one.org. These resources are free and can be customized or disseminated to address workforce challenges in your local and regional areas.

Coming Soon
As workforce credentials become more critical to successful employment, look for updated resources on credentials such as certifications and licenses on CareerOneStop.

Contact Us
Subscribe to the quarterly newsletter, Connections, at (www.CareerOneStop.org/Newsroom/Newsroom.asp).

Please share your feedback with us or ask to be removed from the email list by contacting:

CareerOneStop
E-mail: info@CareerOneStop.org
Toll Free: 1-877-348-0502
TTY: 1-877-348-0501